

Ranking Of Players: Eden Bowls

This system has been developed for players in the Eden District.

Purpose: Will serve as a guideline when doing draw for Eden competitions.
Will serve as a guideline for selection of players to Eden teams. (In team selection other factors such as compatibility, age and experience are also considered.)

Basic Information: There will be 2 tables, one for men and one for ladies.
The table will be published on the Eden web page.
The table will be updated after every tournament.
The table will include the last 3 years results.

Awarding of Points:

- No points are awarded for entering a competition.
- Points are awarded for section winners.
- For every round progressed thereafter, the tournament points are added (minimum 16 sections).
- Should there be fewer rounds then the tournament points will be reduced with points for every round missed. For example: should the Eden Mixed Fours only have 8 sections rather than 16 then the maximum point will reduce to 250.
- Should there be more rounds then the tournament points will increase with Points for every round added. For example: should the Eden Mixed Pairs have 32 sections rather than 16 then the maximum point will increase to 350.
- For Eden Competitions only results for open tournaments will count. (No senior, novice, u/25, etc.)
- Only tournaments entered through Eden Bowls will carry weight
- Singles tournaments will carry more points as one is totally reliant on your own form and abilities for progress

The last three results of a specific competition will be significant:

Current year: 100% of accumulated points will count

Previous year: 70% of accumulated points will count.

3rd/Oldest year: 40% of accumulated points will count.

Example:

	2017	2016	2015
Points collected in year	100	100	100
Points current value	100	70	40
